vi - When to apply

The Centre operates on quarter system. All programs and part-time studies are offered throughout the year. Seats are limited and early application of two months prior to start is recommended. Please consult a Program Advisor for current dates.

vii - International Students

International students may apply for any program at the Centre. All ESL applicants are required to submit with their application proof of their English competency corresponding to a minimum score of 500 (on the paper-based TOEFL or 173 on the computer-based TOEFL), and to complete a personal interview (or telephone interview) prior to acceptance. International applicants must enclose a non-refundable fee of $150 which may be paid by Visa, MasterCard or Bank Draft only. No cheques please. Tuition is payable in Canadian dollars.

viii – Programs

All programs at the Centre are designed by school Directors through extensive research and consultation with instructional staff and industry professionals. Content, texts, course times, instructional staff, etc. are reviewed on a continuous basis. The Centre reserves the right to make ongoing changes to these elements to reflect current industry trends and to ensure and maintain high educational standards. While every attempt is made to offer courses and programs as outlined herein, The Centre reserves the right to suspend or delay the offering of a course or courses due to insufficient enrollment or for reasons that are beyond the school's control. Should a course be suspended or delayed, the Centre reserves the right to offer said course(s) as soon as enrollment dictates or to substitute a course of similar value and content.

viii - Admission/Selection procedure

Students who meet our admission requirements are notified by mail within two weeks of the school receiving completed application packages. Upon acceptance into a certificate or self-paced program a $250.00 deposit is required to complete the registration process and reserve a seat until the balance of the tuition is due. Applicants who have not met the requirements for admission will be contacted in writing by the Admissions Office at the Centre. Application status will not be given over the telephone.

x - Tuition payments

Tuition is due on the first day of each quarter based on the enrollment agreement which each student receives pending acceptance. A monthly payment option may be available (OAC*). Late payments are subject to service fees of 2% per month. All cheques must be made payable to the "Centre for Health Studies". All fees must be submitted in Canadian funds.*OAC - On Approved Credit.

Upon Acceptance

Upon acceptance into part-time studies at the Centre, a $100 application fee is required to complete registration. These deposits are applied against tuition.

xii – Statement

The Centre for Health Studies will not establish requirements for admission that are either implicit or explicitly based on personal characteristics such as race, ancestry, color, ethnic origin, sex, age, marital status, family status, sexual orientation, or physical disability. The Centre for Health Studies admits the best possible qualified students. We assess each applicant on the basis of attitude, motivation, professionalism, dedication, perseverance and a desire to develop superior technical and artistic skills. We are committed to maintaining high academic standards while upholding the principle of accessible education. The Centre for Health Studies admits students on the expectation that students will be successful in achieving their professional goals or other objectives, and make significant personal and professional contributions to the school, their work and communities. In some exceptional circumstances The Centre does accept applicants who do not meet the minimum admissions requirements. These applicants may not display the necessary aptitude or talent but are motivated, dedicated to improving themselves and driven to succeed. In such cases the Centre requires that the applicant sign a release form that holds the institution blameless should the student fail to satisfactorily complete the program of study or find employment. Prompt and equitable attention will be given to all applications. In programs where there is considerable competition and limited seats, The Centre for Health Studies will select those applicants deemed to have the best opportunity for success.

ix - Application by fax

Fax all written requirements with a letter authorizing the Centre to debit your Visa or MasterCard. Mail or courier the original information along with the completed application form, official transcripts and letter of reference. Please note, if you are paying by cheque, include the mailing date on the faxed application. Your application will be date-stamped on the date of transmission. The non-refundable application assessment fee must be received by the Centre within three working days of the date of the fax transmission to be considered. Late applications (see applications received after deadline) by fax must be accompanied by a signed cover letter authorizing the Centre to debit your Visa or MasterCard for both the application assessment fee and the relevant deposit as outlined herein.

xiii - Applications received after deadline

The deadline for each quarter is the first of the month preceding the next quarter's start date. Applications received after the application deadline is accepted subject to seat availability. Late applications must be accompanied by both the application assessment fee and the relevant deposit (i.e. $350 total for certificate student applicants).
